WE FLIPPED THIS SCHOOL: SHOWCASE

10:00 – Spoken Word Poetry by TravisT & Destiny Sharion from the HI Poets Society.

11:15-12:00 & 1:30-2:00 – Open MIC opportunity. Raise your voice. Dance. Play music

11:30- 1:00 – Welaweka & False Wiliwili Seed Earrings. A free make and take workshop with Isaiah Smith.

Learn how to make pikake-style earrings using sustainable seeds grown right here on campus! Though non-native, both welaweka and false wiliwili are prized seeds to make Hawaiian-style seed leis. The term "pikake-style" refers to a pattern used for Ni'ihau shell jewelry, but by drilling at specific angles, seeds like the welaweka (literally "Velvet") and false Wiliwili can be used to make gorgeous earrings. Come learn how to string together these simple yet elegant earrings!

12:00 – Mele Wanana: Prophetic Chants that Prophesied Change in Hawai'i. A presentation of hula & oli featuring Kumu Kalani, Kumu Kimo, & HCC students.

1:00 – Loli Ka Lole: Historical Changes in Dress. A presentation featuring Ka'ano'i Akaka

*From 2/18-2/28 there will be a display of books and materials related to imperialism and colonialism in the library. Please check it out!*
