

WILLIAM S. RICHARDSON
SCHOOL OF LAW

---

2019 INTERNATIONAL JURIST-IN-RESIDENCE
THE HONORABLE JUSTICE EMMANUEL UGIRASHEBUJA
PRESIDENT, EAST AFRICAN COURT OF JUSTICE

---

MAOLI THURSDAY

JUDICIAL RENEWAL IN EAST AFRICA: ENVIRONMENTAL JUSTICE, INDIGENOUS RIGHTS, AND SUSTAINABILITY

THURSDAY, MARCH 7, 2019

CLASSROOM 2

11:45 AM TO 1:15 PM

Honorable Justice Emmanuel Ugirashebuja is the William S. Richardson School of Law's International Jurist in Residence for 2019. The current and 4th President of the East African Court of Justice (EACJ) located in Arusha, Tanzania, he was appointed Judge of Appeal by the Summit of the EAC Heads of State in November 2013 and subsequently appointed the Judge President of the EACJ in June 2014 for a seven-year term.

Justice Ugirashebuja served as Dean of the Law School, University of Rwanda; Member of the Superior Council of Judiciary; Member of the Supreme Council of Prosecution; Senior Lecturer at the National University of Rwanda; Member of the Team of Experts in the East African Community on Fears, Challenges and Concerns towards the East African Political Federation; Legal Advisor at the Rwanda Environment Authority; and Legal Advisor at the Rwandan Constitution Commission. He has lectured at the University of Edinburgh, the University of Dar es Salaam, to the Rwanda Senior command and Staff, and at the Rwanda National Police College. He is an expert and arbitrator in both national and international arbitrations, and has authored several academic and conference papers.

FREE & OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Maoli Thursday is a Law School lunchtime forum held every first Thursday of the month.
RSVP by March 6 to lawevent@hawaii.edu
This Maoli Thursday is co-sponsored by Ka Huli Ao Center for Native Hawaiian Law, the Environmental Law Program & the Law School.