THE ELDER LAW VETERANS FOCUS CLINIC welcomes back CORAL WONG PIETSCH Judge, U.S. Court of Appeals for Veterans Claims

RECENT DECISIONS AND TRENDS AT THE CAVC

3:30 - 5:30pm • Tuesday, April 2, 2019
William S. Richardson School of Law, UH Law Library

PROGRAM

3:30pm Reception
4:00-5:00pm Program
   Introductory Remarks by Prof. James Pietsch
   Recent Decisions and Trends at the CAVC by Judge Coral Wong Pietsch
5:00pm Q&A / Stay and visit with the Judge and the Professor

ABOUT JUDGE PIETSCH

Nominated by President Barack Obama and appointed a Judge of the U.S. Court of Appeals for Veterans Claims (CAVC) in 2012.

CAVC is part of the United States judiciary and not part of the Department of Veterans Affairs. The process for appeals is complex yet veteran-friendly. This is a special opportunity to learn about the unique characteristics of the CAVC and about very important updates on recent cases at the CAVC and how they may have an effect on veterans.

Introduction to the CAVC

Professor James H. Pietsch, Director, UH Elder Law Program (UHELP)

Professor Pietsch teaches Law, Aging and Medicine, Elder Law Clinic, and Health Law: Bioethics. He also holds a Joint Appointment at the John A. Burns School of Medicine.

Limited seating, please register by April 1st by calling UHELP at 956-6544; e-mail uhelp.edu@gmail.com
Parking available $6 in parking structure
For directions see www.hawaii.edu/uhelp Free Event.