

Tradition Meets the New: Music from Korea

전통, 현대를 만나다: 한국 음악

As part of their weeklong residency with the UH Composition program, faculty and student musicians from the prestigious Korea National University of the Arts will present two concerts of new and traditional music for Korean instruments. Come hear how the traditions of Korean music are thriving and growing in the 21st century.

Choi Suk Lee

Jun Hyeo Lim

Korea National University of Arts
한국예술종합학교

Thursday October 10, 2019 7:30pm

premieres of several new works by K-Arts and UH faculty, along with traditional works for janggu, piri, jangjuk and more

Saturday October 12, 2019 7:30pm

premieres of new works by K-Arts and UH graduate students

Orvis Auditorium at UH Mānoa

Tickets: online: manoa.hawaii.edu/music/events General $14 / Student, Senior $10 - eligible for Mus 199 concert attendance

Co-sponsored by:
Korea National University of Arts
UH Music Department
UH SEED IDEAS

