

ICSCP 2020 Speaker Series

“South Africa is the Land of Pet Animals”

Dr. Feuerstein examines representations of pet-keeping in Victorian South Africa to show how the racializing logics of slavery and colonialism emerge within gendered animal-human relationships. Through historical and literary analysis, this talk seeks to better understand the multiple layers of dehumanization taking place within colonial contexts and the afterlives of slavery.

Wednesday, September 23rd 12-1:15 HST - Register to attend