

Thompson School of Social Work & Public Health Presents

The Spring DOH-UH Public Webinar Series on Aging

Webinar 2

Prevent, Detect, and Report Medicare Fraud, The Senior Medicare Patrol

Friday February 26, 8:40am-9:30am

Speakers: Norma Kop and Jazlyn Wandasan, Senior Medicare Patrol (SMP)

Fraud, errors, and abuse cost our Medicare billions of dollars each year. These costs are passed on as higher premiums for Medicare beneficiaries and lower payments to healthcare providers. The Senior Medicare Patrol fights against Medicare fraud and preserves Medicare for generations to come. Learn about how to prevent, detect, and report Medicare fraud. Visit <https://smphawaii.org> for more information.

Register here:

<https://zoom.us/meeting/register/tJlId-6hrDgpGdFqIYoufcjMy8OMCbIHYGxY>

For more information, please contact:

DOH Executive Office of Aging: Candace Young
(Candace.Young@doh.hawaii.gov)

UH Thompson School of Social Work & Public Health:
Victoria Fan (vfan@hawaii.edu) in the Center on Aging and Seunghye Hong (shong2@hawaii.edu) in Department of Social Work
For general inquiries, contact (medicare@hawaii.edu)

This public webinar series is a partnership with the Hawaii State Department of Health (DOH) Executive Office on Aging and the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa (UH) Thompson School of Social Work & Public Health Center on Aging. These webinars are public and FREE!