

Thompson School of Social Work & Public Health Presents

The Spring DOH-UH Public Webinar Series on Aging

Webinar 3

What is Long-Term Care and Why is it Important?

Friday March 26, 8:40am-9:30am

Speakers: Lynn Niitani and John McDermott, Long-Term Care Ombudsman Program (LTCOP)

The LTCOP identifies, investigates, and resolves complaints that are made by, or on behalf of residents, and related to action, inaction, or decisions that may adversely affect the health, safety, welfare, and rights of residents of long-term care facilities such as nursing homes, adult residential care homes, assisted living facilities, and other long-term care settings. Visit <https://health.hawaii.gov/eoa/home/long-term-care-ombudsman-program/> to learn more.

Register here:

<https://zoom.us/meeting/register/tJlId-6hrDgpGdFqIYoufcjMy8OMCbIHYGxY>

For more information, please contact:

DOH Executive Office of Aging: Candace Young
(Candace.Young@doh.hawaii.gov)

UH Thompson School of Social Work & Public Health:
Victoria Fan (vfan@hawaii.edu) in the Center on Aging and
Seunghye Hong (shong9@hawaii.edu) in Department of Social Work
For general inquiries, contact (medicare@hawaii.edu)

This public webinar series is a partnership with the Hawaii State Department of Health (DOH) Executive Office of Aging and the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa (UH) Thompson School of Social Work & Public Health Center on Aging. These webinars are public and FREE!