

Thompson School of Social Work & Public Health Presents

The Spring DOH-UH Public Webinar Series on Aging

Webinar 4

How is Hawaii Addressing the Challenges of Aging?

Friday April 23, 8:40am-9:30am

Speaker: Caroline Cadirao, Director, Hawaii State

Department of Health, Executive Office of Aging (EOA)

The EOA is the focal point for all matters relating to older adults' needs and the coordination and development of caregiver support services within the State of Hawaii. It administers several volunteer-based programs such as the Senior Medicare Patrol, Hawaii State Health Insurance Program, Long-Term Care Ombudsman Program, Healthy Aging Partnership, and others. Visit <https://health.hawaii.gov/ea/> to learn more.

This presentation will also touch on the City and County Elderly Affairs Division (EAD) and will introduce current efforts to help older adults and their support systems find assistance for aging, disability, and caregiving, such as with Nutrition, Housing, Transportation, and Financing. Visit <https://www.elderlyaffairs.com> or call the Helpline 808-768-7700 for more information.

Register here:

<https://zoom.us/meeting/register/tJlId-6hrDgpGdFqIYoufcjMy8OMCbIHYGxY>

For more information, please contact:

DOH Executive Office of Aging: Candace Young

(Candace.Young@doh.hawaii.gov)

UH Thompson School of Social Work & Public Health:

Victoria Fan (vfan@hawaii.edu) in the Center on Aging and

Seunghye Hong (shong9@hawaii.edu) in Department of Social Work

For general inquiries, contact (medicare@hawaii.edu)

This public webinar series is a partnership with the Hawaii State Department of Health (DOH) Executive Office on Aging and the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa (UH) Thompson School of Social Work & Public Health Center on Aging. These webinars are public and FREE!