

University of Hawai'i at Mānoa

Center for Chinese Studies

Spring 2022 Seminars on China

The public is cordially invited to attend. Free admission.

Tuesday May 3, 3:30 pm, via Zoom

Register in advance for this webinar:

https://hawaii.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_uRuUHWQWS22maZ5oaEbCqw

After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the webinar.

Exhibition Opening Talk

“China100 @ UH Mānoa: Online Exhibit to Commemorate 100 Years of Chinese Studies at the University of Hawai'i, Mānoa”

Exhibit Organizers:

Shana Brown, Associate Professor of History at UHM

Song Jiang, Associate Professor of Chinese Language and Linguistics, UHM

Dongyun Ni, Chinese Studies Librarian, Hamilton Library at UHM

Please join us in celebrating the launch of this online exhibit to commemorate the centennial of Chinese studies at the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa. We focus on the first fifty years (1920-1970), highlighting the evolution of academic units, the contributions of faculty, and the creation of our library collection. We welcome your comments, questions, and suggestions, and hope that former students and UH faculty will share memories and contribute materials.

Website beta launch: <https://sites.google.com/hawaii.edu/100years-chinesestudies-uhm/home>

To learn more about the events of the Center for Chinese Studies, please join our online community at manoa.hawaii.edu/chinesestudies, or follow us on Instagram at uhawaiiics. To make a donation, go to <https://giving.uhfoundation.org/funds/12122004>