Cosponsored by Hamilton Library, the Spark M. Matsunaga Institute for Peace and Conflict Resolution, the School of Communication & Information, the Academy for Creative Media, the Hawai'i inuiākea School of Hawaiian Knowledge, the Center for Oral History, and the Departments of Political Science, Ethnic Studies, and Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies

How does a first generation Canadian boy end up in Hawai'i? Can serendipity and bricolage make for an interesting life? Clem will share his unexpected journey from small town Nova Scotia to being the University Librarian and Interim UH Press director here in Honolulu.

Clem Guthro, Interim Director of the UH Press and University Librarian at UH Mānoa, is a father of seven, an international traveler, and an amateur baker.
