

How to get published in social science journals with Dr. Terrell Carver

About:

Professor Terrell Carver is Professor of Political Theory at the University of Bristol, School of Sociology, Politics, and International Relations. He has been editor-in-chief of Contemporary Political Theory since 2010. Prior to that he worked for many years with the Political Studies Association of the United Kingdom on commercial and editorial development and management for their suite of five scholarly journals. Professor Carver has been consulting editor for Political Theory, and is on the editorial boards of numerous journals including International Political Science Review, Globalization, Contemporary Politics and International Feminist Review of Politics.

October 11, 2022 12:00pm-2:00pm in Webster Room 203

RSVP

- Learn the publication process from research and drafting to navigating post-publication success.
- Receive information regarding the publication procedures and guidance surrounding journal mechanics.

Participants are encouraged to bring their own research, discussions, and questions for informed advice

Session One: 12:00- 1:00pm

Journal mechanics and how they work

- Submission systems
- Open-access
- Double and triple-blind review
- Copy editing and proofreading
- Publication
- Research monitoring and search committees

Session Two: 1:00pm- 2:00pm

Article Content and Structure

- Submission systems
- Making a contribution
- Submission requirements
- State, Show, Conclude
- Peer feedback and contacts
- Writing an abstract