

ANTHROPOLOGY CAREER WORKSHOP

All current & prospective anthropology students are invited to join us for a special career workshop hosted by anthropologist & author Carol Ellick. The workshop will focus on careers and employability in anthropology, primarily outside of academia

DEAN HALL
RM 202

THUR. MARCH 2ND
3PM – 4PM

Ms. Carol J. Ellick is an applied anthropologist specializing in public outreach and education. She holds a B.A. in anthropology from The Evergreen State College (1981) and a M.A. in education, with a specialization in curriculum and instruction, from Chapman University (1992). Ms. Ellick is considered one of the leading experts in archaeological education and the development of public programs in the United States.

This event is hosted by the Anthropology Undergraduate Student Association (AUSA) & the UHM Department of Anthropology.
For disability access and additional information, please contact oxley@hawaii.edu