

New Perspectives On Plagiarism:

A More Humane Approach to Teaching and Addressing Source Use

Spring 2023

Tuesday, April 25
10:30 am–11:45 am
Kuykendall 106 Events Room

"Plagiarism" evokes a wide range of negative emotions for both students and instructors. Gain a new perspective in this workshop on source use in academic writing, learn how to integrate a process approach to teaching scholarly work, and share activities for supporting student development as academic writers.

PRESENTERS

Kenny Harsch

Retired, former ELI Director, Undergraduate Coordinator, Second Language Studies

Betsy Gilliland

Associate Professor, Second Language Studies

This event is cosponsored by the OFDAS Center for Teaching Excellence (CTE) and the General Education Writing Intensive Board.

Register Online
www.ofdas.hawaii.edu/events

OFDAS CTE

808-956-6978
cte@hawaii.edu
www.ofdas.hawaii.edu