

A Bird's Eye View of a Dossier: A Panel Discussion

Summer 2023: Summer Dossier Series

This series is for Mānoa faculty who are preparing for contract renewal, promotion and tenure:

- Junior faculty working on a dossier with plans to submit
- New faculty wanting orientation to the dossier process
- Associate faculty considering full rank

Friday, June 23
11:30 am–12:45 pm
Kuykendall 106 Events Room

The panel will cover dossier submission from the Department Chair through to the Department Personnel Committee (DPC), Tenure and Promotion Review Committee (TPRC). Members of the panel will include faculty who have served on Department Personnel Committees (DPCs), Tenure and Promotion Review Committees (TPRCs), and as Department Chairs. The panel will also include a College Dean and the Assistant Vice Chancellor for Academic Personnel. Panelists will present perspectives from respective positions along the path of the dossier process and participants will have opportunities to ask questions.
