

Teaching in Troubled Times:

A Conversation for Faculty, by Faculty

Spring 2024

Thursday, April 4
12 pm – 1:15 pm
Kuykendall 106 Events Room

Classroom discussions are valuable opportunities for exchanges of ideas, experiences and perspectives. A kind of forum for faculty and students to sit together exploring what is known and knowledge that is unfolding, in-class discussions can bring up/ focus on matters with contending points of view that may or not appear to be resolvable. Topics such as the climate crisis, political elections, military conflict, social and cultural characteristics and practices, to name a few. What approaches can faculty take that preserve academic freedom of speech as well as civility, without necessarily always achieving a state of balance on issues of great impact?

PRESENTED BY

Kathy Ferguson
 Women, Gender and Sexuality Studies/
 Political Science

Kath Sands
 American Studies

Tamara Ticktin
 Botany

Lia Keawe
 Kamakakūokalani Center
 for Hawaiian Studies

Hazel Gedikli
 Center for Teaching
 Excellence, moderator

Colin Moore
 Communication and
 Information/Matsunaga
 Institute for Peace

This event is sponsored by the OFDAS Center for Teaching Excellence (CTE).

Register Online
www.ofdas.hawaii.edu/events

OFDAS Center for Teaching Excellence (CTE)

808-956-6978
 cte@hawaii.edu
 www.ofdas.hawaii.edu