I. Purpose:

To set forth policy regarding exemptions to non-resident tuition.

II. Definitions:

No policy specific or unique definitions apply.

III. Policy:

A. The students affected by the following guidelines are classified as non-residents for admission and tuition purposes. B. The following categories of students will receive a waiver of the non-resident tuition differential:

1. East-West Center student grantees pursuing baccalaureate or advanced degrees;

2. United States military personnel stationed in Hawai‘i on active duty, and their authorized dependents during the period that the personnel are stationed in Hawai‘i;

3. Members of the Hawai‘i National Guard and the Hawai‘i Reserves;

4. Native Hawaiians whose domicile is outside of Hawai‘i;

5. Employees of the university, their spouses, and their dependents;

6. Veterans eligible to use Post 9/11 GI Bill or Montgomery GI Bill Active Duty Program educational benefits per the Isakson and Roe Veterans Health Care and Benefits Improvement Act of 2020 (P.L.116-315).

9. Veterans with service-connected disabilities who are eligible for benefits provided for in Title 38, U.S. Code, Chapter 31, otherwise known as the Veteran Readiness and Employment or VR&E (formerly called Vocational Rehabilitation and Employment) program.

C. With the written approval of the chancellor/provost, campuses may, for those non-resident students whose special talents and/or unique skills will make a significant contribution to campus life, exempt the non-resident portion of tuition. If instituted, the total number of exemptions granted in any given year should be established in accordance with the campus’s strategic enrollment management goals, not to exceed two percent of campus enrollment in any given year and shall be reviewed/promulgated on a biennial basis.

D. Citizens from an eligible Pacific Island district, commonwealth, territory, or insular jurisdiction, state or nation which provides no public higher education institution granting baccalaureate degrees are charged 150 percent of the resident tuition rate. For eligible citizens from the group listed in the previous sentence that have a public higher education institution but do not offer a program that is desired by the student and is offered at the University of Hawai‘i, the 150 percent of the resident rate may be applied for participation in the specified approved program at the specified campus.

E. Students on national and international exchange programs where reciprocal tuition agreements have been signed by the president are charged 100 or 150 percent of the resident tuition rate as specified by the reciprocal tuition agreement.
