Bill descriptions provided by Legislative Reference Bureau’s “Bills Passed by the Hawai’i State Legislature Regular Session of 2022.” Some descriptions have been shortened for purposes of this report.
PREFACE

This report, prepared by the University of Hawai‘i System Office of the Vice President for Budget & Finance/Chief Financial Officer and the Government Relations Office (GRO), summarizes actions of the 2022 Regular Session of the 31st State Legislature affecting higher education.

The information provided includes summaries of individual bills and are arranged by subject matter under broad categories, such as Funding and Health and Medicine. Note that bills under “Funding” could also apply to health issues as well, and vice versa, and thus listed under both categories. Within each category, bills are listed in numerical order, not in order of significance.

Each summary is merely that—a summary. It is intended to direct the reader’s attention to a bill and to provide enough information for the reader to determine whether detailed analysis and possible development of an implementation plan is necessary. The summary is not a substitute for a holistic analysis of a bill in light of the particular circumstances of an office or institution.

The full text of each bill is available through a hyperlink in the electronic version of this document. The text, as well as the legislative history of each bill, is also available at www.capitol.hawaii.gov. This website is maintained by the Hawai‘i State Legislature and contains many other resources regarding legislation.
INTRODUCTION

The 2022 legislative session adjourned on May 5 (60th day of the Regular Session). A total of 2,505 bills were introduced at the start of this session and the Legislature passed a total of 340 bills. The University of Hawai‘i (UH) tracked 637 bills that either had a direct or indirect impact on UH, and of those, 95 passed the Legislature. Following the conclusion of the 2022 Regular Session, there was continued activity regarding bills sent to the governor for enactment. By State Constitution, Governor Ige submitted to the Legislature on June 27 (35th day after the Legislature’s adjournment) a list of 30 bills that he “intended” to veto. Of these, 28 were ultimately vetoed, including two measures that included line-item vetoes. No special session was convened by the Legislature to override the governor’s vetoes.

UH had a total of four (4) legislative proposals approved by the President and introduced as part of the 2022 Governor’s Administrative Package:

- HB2185/SB3153 which would have authorized the University of Hawai‘i to issue $100,000,000 in revenue bonds for the purpose of financing the construction, maintenance, and modernization of qualifying capital improvement projects.
- HB 2186/SB3154 which would have provided a framework that supports consistent land use planning and development across the University of Hawai‘i system through designation of university districts that may include the voluntary addition of real property held by a qualified person adjacent to campuses for development consistent with university district plans and rules.
- HB2187/SB3155 which would have changed the number of terms of University of Hawai‘i Board of Regent members that should expire each year from three to two. Adjusts the terms of members appointed between 2022-2026 to realign the number of terms scheduled to expire each year.
- HB2188/SB3156 which would have recognized the cost-sharing agreement for overall personnel expenses between State general funds and funds in the University of Hawai‘i Tuition and Fees Special Fund for appropriated general fund positions as beneficial to both the University of Hawai‘i and the State.

None of the above-mentioned administrative package bills passed the 2022 Legislature.

There were a number of measures that negatively impacted the University of Hawai‘i, one being HB 2024 HD1 SD2 CD1 (Act 255, SLH 2022) which establishes the Mauna Kea Stewardship and Oversight Authority as the sole authority for the management of Mauna Kea lands. UH addressed issues with the conference draft of this bill as it lacked clear authority for stewardship responsibility during the five-year transition period. There were also questions about the financial implementation including the sunsetting of the current UH special fund.

UH’s top request was for the 2022 Legislature to restore State general fund support to the university, which it reduced in the prior session, and the Legislature fulfilled this request. Additionally, the Legislature provided $8 million for UH Athletics. Although additional positions and funds to support creative media at UH West O‘ahu were not included, every other operating budget request by the Board of Regents and the governor was included, including appropriations to fund initiatives to address critical shortages in the State’s workforce for nursing, medical residency, teaching, aviation, information technology and cybersecurity.

There was no legislative funding support to increase the seating capacity at the Clarence T.C. Ching Athletics Complex. Without this support, the university will have to look at other alternatives to increase capacity to meet NCAA requirements for a Division I football program.
