FUNCTIONAL STATEMENT

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR - MASSRI

The Office of the Director oversees the research programs of the Social Science Research Institute (SSRI) and the sponsored research enterprise in the College of Social Sciences (CSS). The Office of the Director provides leadership in promoting sponsored research on social, behavioral, economic, and environmental issues and collaborates with instructional and research units within the College and across campus to foster excellence in research. The Director of SSRI is responsible for the programmatic direction of the Institute, serves as the head of sponsored research in the Institute and College, conducts research, and serves as the chief advisor to the Dean of the CSS in these areas.

FISCAL SERVICES – MAASRI

As the sponsored research unit of the CSS, the Office of the Director is also responsible for fiscal and administrative management of all research and training grants and contracts in the College. Fiscal/administrative responsibilities include proposal review and coordination, procurement, personnel, inventory, reports, budget management and monitoring, compliance oversight, management of the College's Research and Training Revolving Funds and other intramural funds, and consultations to the College's faculty and staff on grants management.

ECONOMIC RESEARCH ORGANIZATION (UHERO) - MARSRI

The University of Hawaii Economic Research Organization (UHERO) conducts rigorous, independent economic research on the people, environment, and economies of Hawai'i and the Asia Pacific region. Dissemination of research results help inform public and private sector decision making that impact Hawai'i's citizens, policymakers, business and community organizations who make daily choices that impact social welfare, the environment, and prospects for sustainable economic development.

CENTER FOR ORAL HISTORY - MAOHRI

The Center for Oral History collects, preserves, and disseminates life history data from segments of the Hawaiian community using oral history methodology. Statewide objectives include: (a) research, conduct, and disseminate life history interviews with individuals on social issues and other topics related to Hawaii's history; (b) publish transcripts, books, articles, videos, and newsletters on COH research; (c) train individuals and groups in the community on oral history methodology; (d) present lectures to the general community on topics relating to oral history and local Hawaii history; and (e) serve as resource clearinghouse for oral history activity statewide.

CENTER FOR YOUTH RESEARCH - MAYRRI

The Center for Youth Research conducts research using a science-practitioner model to integrate research and service/intervention targeting at-risk youth in Hawaii. Youth-related research areas include juvenile justice, delinquency, substance abuse, suicide prevention, and youth violence. The CYR is also involved in policy and program development and in the evaluation of youth programs. The CYR focuses on social and cultural issues affecting youth and advises youth-service agencies on incorporating this information in program planning and decision-making to improve the lives of youth in Hawaii.

DEPARTMENT OF ANTHROPOLOGY – Org Code: MAANTH

The Department of Anthropology offers degrees in B.A., M.A. and Ph.D., as well as an MA track in Applied Archaeology that trains professional archaeologists for careers in historic preservation and cultural resource management in Hawaii and the Pacific. Faculty and students also participate actively in numerous certificate programs including Historic Preservation, Museum Studies, International Cultural Studies, and others.

The Department offers training in three major subfields of anthropology: cultural anthropology, archaeology, and biological anthropology. In addition, the program's specialization in the study of Asian and Pacific regions, including Hawai'i and the U.S. prepares students for a variety of careers concerned with intercultural and international relations. Faculty and graduate students are involved with teaching, advising, and cooperative research in all of the centers for area studies in the School of Pacific and Asian Studies.

Our undergraduate curriculum is not designed solely for majors, but attracts students from across the University. This service begins with the UH Mānoa general education core courses, including those designated in the Foundations (Multi-Cultural and Global Perspectives), Diversification (Social Sciences, Humanities, Biological Science, Physical Science), and Focus (Hawaiian, Asian, and Pacific Issues) areas. A significant number of anthropology majors go on to study for graduate degrees and professional careers applying anthropological skills.

DEPARTMENT OF ETHNIC STUDIES – Org Code: MAES

The Ethnic Studies Department is an interdisciplinary unit with emphasis on undergraduate education. It was founded in 1970 with a mandate to provide a research, institutional and community service unit which integrated the concerns of race, ethnicity and class. The focus is on Hawaii, with its rich legacy of multiethnic heritages. The research, teaching, and service components, however, also involve the United States and comparative studies of societies around the globe.

Ethnic Studies has developed a unique academic presence at Mānoa. It is the only unit whose concentration is wholly upon race and ethnic relations, both in Hawaii and the U.S., as well as comparative studies of groups around the world. The Ethnic Studies Department is also unique in that it maintains a research and teaching philosophy emphasizing praxis: the application of intellectual theories to the complex programs in our local communities.

This includes being committed to an ongoing interaction with local communities, through civic engagement and service learning, on the basis of mutual respect and a two-way exchange of learning and information. We have also continued to engage undergraduates as teaching assistants in our classes to provide peer instruction, a program has produced outstanding "publicly oriented" citizens in a variety of fields including politics, law, labor, education, business, culture, and human services.

Our faculty has special expertise in the history of Native Hawaiians, Japanese, Chinese, Filipinos, African Americans, Native Americans and Caucasians; ethnic and race relations in the United States; political economy and ethnic issues in the Middle East, North America, and the Pacific Islands, and offers courses and conducts research in these areas.

SOCIAL SCIENCES PUBLIC POLICY CENTER – Org Code: MASSPP

The Social Sciences Public Policy Center is an academic center within the College of Social Sciences focused on enhancing the quality of community life through instruction, non-partisan research and civic engagement designed to encourage community-based policy dialogs. The Center is aligned with the University's strategic plan to engage multi-disciplinary elements of the U.H. system and diverse communities to provide educational initiatives for students, (e.g. the Graduate Certificate in Public Policy and opportunities to work on grants and contracts); conduct research and facilitate and support community collaborations and networks. More specifically, it builds on the college's existing research strengths, collaborates across disciplines and provides the administrative leadership, support and infrastructure to facilitate strong partnerships within the university and with public and private sector partners. Three instructional positions (two tenured positions and one tenure track) teach in the Public Administration Program and Social Sciences Public Policy Center and are split funded (50% FTE). For tenure purposes these three positions are reflected under the Public Administration Program.

FUNCTIONS

- To provide education and training opportunities in policy studies for both undergraduate and graduate students, promoting and developing effective and reflective practitioners and leaders in public policy and public affairs.
- To provide graduate students course work and internship opportunities to hone their skills in policy analysis by offering a Graduate Certificate in Public Policy.
- To conduct research, publish and disseminate studies and reports useful to policy makers so they can make sound policy decisions.
- To become a responsible repository and clearinghouse for data bases, information systems and other reference material critical to public policy analyses.
- To support and promote the programs of the Matsunaga Institute for Peace and Conflict Resolution (See MIPCR functional statement).

SPARK M. MATSUNAGA INSTITUTE FOR PEACE – Org Code: MAPACE

The Spark M. Matsunaga Institute for Peace and Conflict Resolution offers opportunities to link the fields of peace studies, human rights, and conflict resolution with public policy issues. It is aligned with the University's strategic plan to initiate learning centers that respond to society needs and, by design, focuses on interdisciplinary teaching and areas of inquiry. MIPCR offers a wide array of undergraduate, graduate and outreach college courses. It offers a Graduate Certificate in Conflict Resolution, a BA in Peace Studies and Conflict Resolution (through Interdisciplinary Studies) and a certificate in Peace Studies (equivalent to a minor). The Institute has built a reputation for leadership in dispute resolution and facilitation of community dialogs which provide student/faculty engagement in community-based problem solving. Inherently interdisciplinary and international in perspective, these programs encourage critical thinking and further the University's mission of expanding leadership in international affairs and advancing stable, peaceful, prosperous and democratic relations in the region (UHM Strategic Plan, 2002-2010, pp 8-9). MIPCR has two full time, tenured FTEs and one tenure track position which is split .50% with the Richardson School of Law.

FUNCTIONS

- To provide education and training opportunities for both undergraduate and graduate students, promoting and developing effective and reflective practitioners and leaders in conflict analysis, peacemaking, mediation, facilitation, human rights, and international dispute resolution.
- To provide opportunities for students to learn through practicum and internships with hands-on skills as the MIPCR works to resolve conflicts within the campus and in the broader community.
- To conduct and publish research in relevant fields, including alternative dispute resolution, culture and conflict resolution, war powers, international law, and human rights.
- To serve the community by providing educational forums, training programs, and conflict resolution services.
