STUDENT LIFE AND DEVELOPMENT – Org Code: MASLD

The Office of Student Life and Development reports to the OVPSS and pursues as its primary mission the provision of a spectrum of involvement and learning opportunities for students through innovative programs and quality services which promote leadership, life skills, and personal development while enhancing campus life. In fulfilling this mission, the Office of Student Life and Development pursues two basic goals: 1) to provide co- curricular programs and learning opportunities which contribute to the quality of life for students by meeting their intellectual, social, recreational, physical, emotional and moral development needs; and 2) to promote leadership and self-direction among those students who become involved in managing student life activities on campus or who assume an active partnership role in campus governance. Inherent in pursuing these two goals are a product outcome and a process outcome, both of equal importance. Through the delivery of services and programs (the product) that meet the developmental needs of the general student population, the Office of Student Life and Development involves students in organizational governance (the process) that fosters the development of personal and organizational leadership.

The mission and goals of the department of Student Life and Development are fulfilled through five core functions: program or service administration; organizational advising and support; facility operations; organizational training and development; and staff efficacy and renewal as described below.

- Program or Service Administration is a core function that involves the coordination and oversight of programs and services offered by the department. This function includes such tasks as the continuous analysis of service/program operations to improve operational efficiency and effectiveness; the development of scope of service/program changes to respond to assessed needs; supervision of service or program operations; the development of systematic marketing to promote use of program or service; the assessment of service or program for customer use, satisfaction, and cost benefits; the identification and analysis of preventive maintenance and repair of service area or program needs; and the administration of vendor contracts applicable to service area or program.
- Organizational Advising & Support is a form of counseling and offering educational assistance to students in groups. This form of educational assistance involves assessing student and organizational needs; and instructing and counseling students to develop their interpersonal and leadership skills to work effectively in organizational or team settings. This also involves articulating and advocating the needs and interests of students to the University and conversely, representing, supporting, and communicating the University's mission, institutional needs, and policies to students and student groups. Additionally, this core function involves providing fiscal oversight and program coordination for activities and programs offered by assigned student groups.
- Facility Operations is a core function that involves the oversight of facility management and maintenance of the Campus Center, Hemenway Hall, and other related student life facilities (e.g. student publications buildings, intramural sports and recreational leisure facilities, etc.). This function includes analyzing facility operations; developing short- range and long-range plans for preventive maintenance and repairs; monitoring and directing the renovation, expansion and repair projects for facilities including replacing equipment and furnishings; and administering maintenance contracts for major mechanical systems including air conditioning, electrical system, gas and water systems, elevators, etc. This also requires that facility operating hours are adhered to, that facilities and services are properly prepared for opening and closing, and that proper controls are in place for facility security, key access, etc. to assure the safety and maintenance of buildings, grounds, and persons.
- Organizational Training & Development is another core function that is delivered via instruction in both classroom and out-of-classroom settings. This function includes such tasks as researching existing literature, websites, and journals on assigned training topics; formulating learner outcomes; designing instructional methods and materials to achieve learner outcomes; delivering instruction and training; and evaluating instructional methods and materials to refine and improve training.
- Staff Efficacy & Renewal is a core function that promotes continuous staff development to enhance individuals' effectiveness in serving students with intentionality and efficacy. This function acknowledges the need to develop those professionals who serve and develop students.

Student Life and Development is comprised of four sections reporting to the Director and described below. Each section contributes to the fulfillment of the department's mission by performing a differential ratio of the five core functions described earlier with a specialized focus as follows:

Group study rooms with media equipment are available for student use via online reservation.

MĀNOA ACADEMIC ADVISING – Org Code: MAADVI

Mānoa Academic Advising is comprised of four campus-wide academic advising units that serve students in diverse populations as they work towards their academic goals: Mānoa Advising Center, Mānoa Transfer Coordination Center, Pre-Health/Pre-Law Advising Center, and Student-Athlete Academic Services. The advising units work with students who are exploring their major options, preparing for and transferring to UH Mānoa, pre-professional students working toward health and law programs, and student-athletes. These student populations pursue majors across the entire UH Mānoa campus and, thus, the Mānoa Advisors collaborate with colleagues across all academic units in order to support and advise students. Due to the distinct, independent, and unique functions of these offices, each unit has its own Director/Department Chair who oversees the day-to-day operations of its office.

The Director of Mānoa Academic Advising (DMAA) will coordinate the efforts, resources, and budget of the four units and will report to the Assistant Vice Provost of Student Academic Success. The DMAA works collaboratively with administrators, governance groups and school/college advisors to establish consistent campus-wide advising policies and practices to be implemented at both central and school/college levels. As a campus-wide advising advocate, the DMAA has the responsibility to ensure the most effective student experience by improving campus-wide communication and collaboration between central and school/college units; managing policies and procedures related to academic advising; ensuring consistency, integration and quality of advising; ensuring equitable access to advising for all students and representing academic advisors and their concerns to administration for consideration in campus decisions.

The DMAA has the authority to work with the Deans and Directors and the respective advising units in each of the schools/colleges as well as with units that provide campus-wide services, to discuss and propose campus-wide policies and practices; oversee the implementation and execution of campus-wide initiatives, coordinate advisor training and professional development, ensure accountability in conducting regular assessment of advising for continuous improvement, establish consistent execution of campus-wide policies in collaboration with the Mānoa Faculty Senate, Mānoa Staff Senate and Mānoa Deans, Directors and administrators.

Mānoa Advising Center – Org Code: MAMAC

Mānoa Advising Center (MAC) provides advising for all Exploratory (undeclared) students in the following pathways: EX (Exploratory), EXAH (Exploratory Arts & Humanities), EXB (Exploratory Business), EXHS (Exploratory Health Sciences), EXSS (Exploratory Social Sciences), and EXST (Exploratory STEM). MAC is staffed by both academic advisors and peer advisors. MAC's mission is to assist students in finding the majors that best fit their interests, abilities, and goals and connect them to their majors as soon as possible in order to encourage active participation, involvement, and engagement. MAC operates as a college/school level advising office because it provides comprehensive services. MAC advisors are intentionally placed outside of any graduating college/school to serve as experts in understanding how to best support students to enter the over 100 majors offered at the University and are well positioned to present all potential majors options to students. MAC also serves declared students who are considering switching majors or who wish to weigh their options. MAC advisors serve as liaisons to the various majors offered on campus and provide targeted messaging, workshops, and a series of courses designed to assist students in major selection through self-reflection, awareness of identity, and career and major exploration. MAC students are required to fulfill mandatory advising every semester until they are in their declared major. Since MAC advisors are involved in connecting students to prospective majors, they are purposefully engaged in the broader campus community in order to best serve their students. They lead cross-campus programs and initiatives, including:

- Exploratory Program
 - UNIV 140, 240, 340, 440
- Mānoa Peer Advisor Program
 - UNIV 350, 450
- New Student Advising Online Workshop
- Mānoa Sophomore Experience

LEARNING ACADEMY – Org Code: MALAC

The Learning Academy provides students with support services to promote academic success.

Academic Resource Center

The Academic Resource Center (ARC) applies a holistic approach in providing educational support services and programs to address students' needs in relation to achieving academic goals in a structured, collaborative learning environment designed to develop independent, effective learners. ARC services assist students in establishing effective strategies for studying independently and with others, adjusting learning approaches and behaviors to fit their unique needs, and developing a functional understanding of course content. ARC's tutors participate in continual training that develops their leadership and communication skills, and the ability to work effectively with the University's diverse population.

Major programs include:

- Peer Tutoring - Individual and small group content area tutoring.
- Supplemental Instruction (SI) - Weekly study group that focuses on collaboration and interaction facilitated by trained tutors to help students understand and apply course content with guidelines provided by the course instructor.
- Housing Success Center - Evening walk-in tutoring in the residential hall.
- Academic Coaching – A comprehensive service for students to improve their academic self-management and learning skills, and develop a strong sense of ownership in their success.

Online Learning Academy

The Online Learning Academy (OLA) aims to support students from underrepresented groups to prepare for postsecondary education. With programs such as GEAR-UP and Talent Search, we combine efforts in creating ways of reaching students to 1) build college and career aspirations, 2) increase academic success, and 3) help close the educational gap among groups traditionally underrepresented in higher education by providing program-specific tutoring and relevant resources to succeed in their current courses. The following services are current OLA projects:

Major programs include:

- Synchronous Tutoring - Students receive one-to-one online tutoring. Certain GEAR-UP and Talent Search schools receive customized one-to-one tutoring.
- Use of EdReady – EdReady is a learning tool that creates a personalized pathway in learning math. It starts with a diagnostic exam that determines which mathematical concepts does the student know and which ones can he/she improve on.
- End-of-Course (EOC) Exam Example Videos – DOE schools give their students the State of Hawai'i's EOC exam to see how their students do compared to other Public Schools in Hawai'i. Our tutors create EOC videos using the DOE's sample problems and share it with Kea'au HS. HETS coordinator uploads the videos on their Google Classroom.
- Mentoring – OLA provides mentorship support by sharing their resumes and highlighting key points as templates.
