COMMUNITY COLLEGES
KAPI'OLANI COMMUNITY COLLEGE

FUNCTIONAL STATEMENTS

Kapi'olani Community College (the "College") strives to be a model indigenous-serving institution, committed to responding to its local community through open access to, and engagement and success in, postsecondary education. It provides comprehensive education and training programs to meet the needs of its individual students while additionally preparing students for lives of ethical, responsible community involvement through increased civic engagement. In addition, the mission statement establishes the College's economic role to meet private sector demands for work-based training and specific skill acquisition for workers, as well as to meet the demands of local, national, and global sustainable advancement so that its students can be globally competitive as a workforce. The College has established a reputation as a national leader in 21st century career programs, especially in Hospitality, Health Education, ESL and Second Language Curriculum Development and Language Teacher Training, in the development of campus partnerships for community engagement, and in integrated international education through global collaborations. Also, the College continues to build partnerships within the University and with other educational, governmental, business, and non-profit organizations to support lifelong learning. The College currently offers the Associate in Arts degree, Associate in Science degree, Associate in Science in Natural Sciences degree, Academic Subject Certificates, Certificates of Achievement and Certificates of Competence in over 24 career fields and a variety of shorter term credit and continuing education training programs. Some of the specific degree and certificate offerings, such as those in Legal Education, Health Sciences, Emergency Medical Services, Biotechnician, and Educational Paraprofessional, are available only through Kapi'olani Community College.
